William Means

William M. "Mike" Means, 33, Olathe, died Wednesday at Kansas University Medical Center. Born in Kansas City, Mo., he had lived in the area his entire life. He was office manager for USBA, an insurance company in Kansas City.

He was a member of the Raytown, Mo., Christian Church. He served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. He was an Eagle scout and a member of the tribe of Mic-O-Say. He had degrees from the University of Missouri-Columbia and the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

Survivors include the widow, Marilee Means, of the home; two stepsons, Sean Mallonee and Scott Mallonee, both of the home; his parents Mr. and Mrs. William A. Means, Raytown, Mo.; a sister, Mrs. Mary Eimer, Hillsboro; and his grandfather, Fred Olson, Raytown, Mo.

The funeral service will be at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Hinton Funeral Home, Raytown, with burial at Memorial Park Cemetery, Kansas City, Mo. Visitation will be at 7-9 tonight at the Hinton chapel.

The family suggests memorials to the American Cancer Society.

Link to original obituary